Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-35 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 1 recites, "resetting the timer in response to the monitor module detecting a subsequent status signal within a determined period of time, wherein the subsequent status signal is provided by the system module at another one of the predetermined status points during state transitionining of the system module". This feature, in combination with remaining claimed structure, overcomes the prior art of record.

Claim 14 recites, "wherein the monitor module is operable to reset the timer in response to detecting a subsequent status signal within a determine period of time, wherein the subsequent status signal is output by the received system module at another predetermined system status point during state transitioning of the system module". This feature, in combination with remaining claimed structure, overcomes the prior art of record.

Claim 29 recites, "wherein the monitor module is operable to reset the timer in response to detecting a subsequent status signal within a determine period of time, wherein the subsequent status signal is output by the received system module at another predetermined system status point during state transitioning of the system module". This feature, in combination with remaining claimed structure, overcomes the prior art of record.

Claim 34 recites, "resetting the timer in response to the monitor module detecting a subsequent status signal within a determined period of time, wherein the subsequent status signal is provided by the system module at another one of the predetermined status points during state transitionining of the system module". This feature, in combination with remaining claimed structure, overcomes the prior art of record.

Claim 35 recites, "wherein the monitor module is operable to reset the timer in response to detecting a subsequent status signal within a determine period of time, wherein the subsequent status signal is output by the received system module at another predetermined system status point during state transitioning of the system module". This feature, in combination with remaining claimed structure, overcomes the prior art of record.

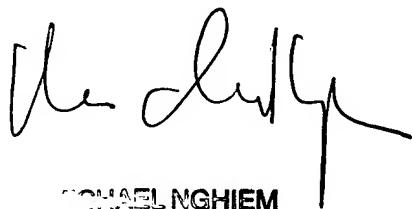

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
